

Section 23. Acknowledgements

This is one of 24 sections that make up the proposal to form TRISI. The other sections can be found at:

<http://www.ptgrr.com/contents/get-involved/trisi-content>

Dr Nobs Mwanda, M.D., ASHOKA Fellow – CEO of COPESSA

It was a conversation way back in 2008 that inspired my original pursuit of solutions based advocacy in the South Africa Mental Health care world. Your passion, dedication and tenacity has been inspiring to me ever since.

Andre Bestbier (Maj.Gen Retired), Chief Executive Officer of CompreCare (HIV/Aids) Joint Venture.

Your example to me stretches many years back. You continue to teach me to be a better human being by setting standards that are hard to emulate.

Barry Zworestein - Clinical Psychologist; Head of learning support at a private school and contract counsellor for the Australian Vietnam Veterans Counselling Services and Australian Defence Force.)

Barry, we found each other on Facebook, but I'm convinced it was an act of heaven. Your guidance and support is forever a rock in my life.

Nikky Schumann, Frank Kruger and Cedrick Hedgcock

Without you I could not have survived emotionally or physically these last few years.

Penny de Vries

My personal 'sensitivity-coach'. For someone who disagrees with me so much you have remarkably made me so agreeable to so much of your wisdom.

Ian Gross

My co-founder at PTG-RR. The best thing is to start at the beginning. I hope to see you at the finishing post.

Marion Nixon

Trustee, Editor, Trauma-Activist and professional.

Calvin, Ingrid and Kevin Rogers

Thank you for your love. This is the only way I know now.

Prof Dan Stein - Department of Psychiatry and Mental Health, Faculty of Health Sciences, Univ. of Cape Town.

Prof, I am so grateful that you have always found some time to give each and every one of this uneducated yet passionate man's requests for opinion an honest answer. I hope this time I might have exceeded your expectations.

Prof Steven Friedman

Thank you for your important words of support and allowing me to quote you.

The Savannah Brothers - Brothers always. You know why.

To all those Buddy Care Roadwalker's

"I am your Roadwalker. I walk just behind you. I cannot walk your journey for you, but if you ask, I will step up and walk beside you, for as long as you wish, and I am able."

All my kind friends who helped pay my bills whilst I completed this proposal: Rob, Gail, Choc, Tony, Louis, Stephan, Mark, Andy, Horst, Nikki, Ingrid, Jane, Gerald, Frank, Ced, Ian and those Anon's.

All those who had an encouraging words for me. You really don't know how much they meant and kept me going.

I am eternally grateful to you all. I can only hope I have done enough to get TRISI to the next steps. Brian